BE EARNEST.

Be earnest in the calling,
Whatever it may be;
Time's sands are ever falling
And will not wait for thee

With zeal and vigor labor,
And thou wilt surely rise,
Oh, suffer not thy neighbor
To bear away the prize!

But form thy purpose gravely—
Then quickly push along
And prosecute it bravely,
With a resolution strong.

Thou wilt be defeated;
But pressing firmly on,
Find all at length completed—
Thine object fully won!

Be earnest in devotion,
Old age is drawing near;
A bubble on Time's ocean,
Thou soon will disappear!

In practice, and in spirit,
Here worship thou the Lord;
And thou shalt then inherit
A rich and sure reward.

Select Miscellany.

A FUNNY SPEECH.

The Wisconsin Legislature have formally considered a proposition to abolish all laws for the collection of debts. The mover of the bill—Mr. Elmore—is a great wag, as is evidenced by the following extract from his speech upon that subject:

The speaker proceeded to review the present system of collecting debts It was all a humbug and a cheat, a matter of technicalities and legal shuffling. Lawyers gave advice in order to obtain a fee and encourage litigation. Judges made blunders and mistakes. He had little experience in the law and that was rich. [Laughter.] He would give a history of it. The speaker then related how he had purchased a yoke of oxen about fifteen years ago—paid fifty dollars for them—a few days after, the son of the man of whom he bought the oxen came to him and said the oxen were his. He insisted on having pay over again, and commenced a suit before a justice. The jury didn't agree. Finally, through the blunders of the Bushwood Justice of the Peace, the case went against him. He appealed it to the Circuit Court in Milwaukie. There I lost again and said to my lawyer: "I will give you ten dollars to quote Pennsylvania law to Judge Miller and have a new trial ordered." [Great laughter.] He took the ten dollars and performed the duty.

A new trial was then granted, and venue changed to Walworth county. Judge Irwin was then the Judge. Any man who wanted to gain a case in his court had either to go hunting with him and let the Judge claim all the game that was shot, or else pat his dog. Well, I patted the dog. [Laughter.] I fed the dog with crackers. [Renewed laughter.] The case was decided in my favor. When I heard the decision I thought to myself the dog had followed me long enough—I turned round, gave him a kick—[laughter.] The yelp of the dog had hardly subsided ere I heard the Judge say, "Mr. Clerk, this judgment is set aside and a new trial granted." [Great laughter.]—Mr. Speaker, that kick cost me $200! [Convulsive laughter.] You have no doubt seen a suit in a Justice's Court in the country. There is time spent by jurors and hangers on, besides other costs, at least $50, besides the ill feelings and dissensions caused by it. It is all a cheat. The litigants had better set down and play a game of old sledge to decide the case.

It would be more sure to settle the disputes justly.

☞ A young lady who was employed in braiding a guard chain for a gentleman's watch, was asked what it was for. "A bell rope, sir," replied she. "I acknowledge it is a belle rope," rejoined he, "and a pretty one, too; but I suspect we shall find a beau attached to it when it is finished."

Major Jack Downing on Secession.

We reproduce, for the benefit of the present day and generation, the following letter on Nullification, from the celebrated pen of Major Jack Downing:

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 17th, 1833.

To the Editor of the Portland Courier, to the Mariner's Church Building, second story eastern end, Fore street, cross down East, to the State of Maine.

My Kind and Dear Old Friend: The President's message to Congress makes crackling work here. Mr. Calhoun shows his teeth like a lion. Mr. McDuffie is cool as a cowcumber, though they say he's got a terrible tempest inside of him, that he'll let out before long. For my part I think the President's message is about right. I was setting with the President in the east room last night, chatting about one thing and another, and the President says he, Major Downing, have you read my message that I sent to Congress to-day? I told him I hadn't. Well, says he, I should like to have you read it, and give me your opinion upon it. So he handed it to me and I sot down and read it through.

And when I got through, now, says I, Gineral, I'll tell you jest whot I think of this ere business. When I was a youngster, some of us Downingville boys used to go down to Sebago pond every spring and hire out a month or two carting logs across the pond. And one time I and cousin Ephraim and Joel, and Bill Johnson, and two or three more of us, had each a whopping great log to carry across the pond. It was rather a windy day, and the waves kept the logs bobbing up and down considerably bad, so we agreed to bring 'em along side and side, and lash 'em together and drive some thole pins in the outermost logs, and row 'em over together. We went along two or three miles pretty well. And, by and by, Bill Jones begun to complain. He was always an uncasy, harumscarum sort of a cap. Always thought everybody else had an easier time than he had, and, when he was a boy, always used to be complaining that the other boys had more batter on their bread than he had. Well, Bill was rowing on the leeward side, and he begun to fret and said his side went the hardest, and he wouldn't give us any peace till one of us changed sides with him.

Well, Bill hadn't rowed but a little ways on the windward side before he begun to fret again and declared that side went harder than 'tother, and he wouldn't touch to row on that side any longer. We told him he had his choice, and he shouldn't keep changing so. But he only fretted the more, and begun to get mad. At last he declared if we didn't change with him in five minutes, he'd cut the lashes, and take his log and paddle off alone. And before we had hardly time to turn round, he declared the five minutes were up, and up with hatchet and cut the lashings, away went Bill on his own log, bobbing and rolling about, and dancing like a monkey to try to keep on the upper side. The rest of us scrabbled to as well as we could, and fastened our logs together again, though we had a tuff match for it, the wind blew so hard. Bill had not gone but a little ways before his log begun to roll more and more, and by and by in he went, splash, head and ears. He came up puffing and blowing, and tried to climb up on it, but the more he tried the more the log rolled; and finding it would be gone goose with him pretty soon if he stayed there, he begun to sing out like a loon for us to come and take him. We asked him which side he would row if we would take his log into the raft again? O, says Bill, I'll row on either side, or both sides, if you want me to, if you'll only come and help me before I sink.

But, said the President, I hope you didn't help the foolish rascal out till he got a pretty good soaking. He got soaked enough before we got him, says I, for he was jest ready to sink for the last time, and our logs came pesky near getting scattered, and if they had, we should have all gone to the bottom together. And now Gineral, this is jest what I think; if you let South Carolina cut the lashings you'll see such a log rolling in this country as you never see yet. The old Gineral started up and marched across the floor like a boy. Says he, Major Downing she shan't cut the lashings while my name is Andrew Jackson. Tell Sargent Joel to have his company sleep on their arms every night. I told him they should be ready at a moment's warning

I wish you would give cousin Ephraim up to Agusta a jog to know why he don't write to me and let me know how the Legislator is getting along.

I remain your loving friend,
MAJOR JACK DOWNING.

☞ "I vants to shippen der Lucila," said a foreigner to the clerk in a shipping office.

"Well," said the clerk, pen in hand, "what's your name?"

"It is Hans Nannootebiastinidtadnedemuseighyporobelkvenxquilgwpaintetismnpluript," said Duchy, gravely, spitting out his old quid and taking in a fresh one.

"Heaven!" said the clerk, "I can't write that. Look here, Mister, what is it in English, do you know?"

"Yaw, Ich does. It ish Yon Smidt."

REMARKS OF REVERDY JOHNSON.

The following touching and impressive remarks before the Supreme Court, were made by Hon. Reverdy Johnson on Thursday last, at the close of an argument on the Albany Bridge case:—

May it please your Honors, indulge me with a word or two more before I conclude.

This may be the last time that the Court will sit in peaceful judgment on a Constitution acknowledged and obeyed by all.—God, in his providence, and for our sins, may, in his inscrutable wisdom, suffer the folly and wickedness of this generation to destroy the fairest, noblest fabric of constitutional freedom ever erected by man. Its whole history, from the moment of its operation even to the present hour, bears evidence of its unrivalled excellence.—Our country, our whole country, has, from the first, prospered under it, and because of it, with a rapidity, and in a manner, before or since unknown to nations. That prosperity vindicates the wisdom and patriotism of its great and good founders.

Is this prosperity now to cease? Is it now to be dashed to the earth? Are the hopes of civilized man, the world over, now to be blasted? Are we to become the jest, the scorn, the detestation of the people of the earth? Is all memory and reverence for the great dead, who living we admired and adored, to be now forgotten? Is all gratitude for the mighty, trying struggles, of our fathers now to end? Are the warnings, the parting warnings of the peerless man of all this world now to be disregarded and despised? Is the country of Washington, consecrated by his valor, wisdom, and virtue to freedom and peace, now to be converted into a wild scene of disorder, fraternal strife, bloodshed, war? May Heaven in its mercy forbid!

May it stay the arm of the madman, arrest it in mid-career before it strikes the fatal paricidal blow. May it give time for reason and patriotism to resume their sway? May it remove the delusions of the misguided, strengthen the efforts of the patriotic, impart heavenly fire to the eloquence of the faithful statesman; silence, by the universal voice of the good and true men of the nation, the utterings of treason now tainting the air and shocking the ear of patriotism, and the whinings of imbecibility, now discouraging and sickening the honest public heart! May it, above all, re-kindle that fraternal love which bound us by ties stronger, infinitely stronger, than any which mere government can create, during the whole of our Revolutionary struggle, and has since cheered us on our pathway to the power and renown which has made us, until now, the wonder and admiration of the world!

But if all shall fail us and ruin come; if chaos, worse than chaos, is to be our fate, the spirit of those who have departed, and the survivors who have administered justice in this tribunal in the general wreck and wretchedness that will ensue, will be left this consolation: that their recorded judgments, now, thank God, the rich inheritance of the world, and beyond the spoiler's reach, will, till time shall be no more, testify to the spotless integrity, the unsurpassed wisdom, the ever bright patriotism of the men who from the first have served their country in this temple, sacred to justice and duty, and the matchless wisdom of our fathers, who bequeathed it and commended it to the perpetual reverence and support of their sons, and remain a never dying dishonor and reproach to the sons who shall have caused or permitted its destruction.

WHAT IS LIFE?—The mere elapse of years is not life. To eat, and drink, and sleep—to be exposed to darkness and the light—to pace around the mill of habit, and turn thought into an implement of trade—this is not life. In all this but a poor fraction of the conciousness of humanity is awakened, and the sanctities still slumber which make it worth while to be. Knowledge, truth, love, beauty, goodness, faith, alone can give vitality to the mechanism of existence. The laugh of mirth that vibrates through the heart—the tears that freshens the dry wastes within the music that brings childhood back—the prayer that calls the future near—the doubt which makes us meditate—the death which startles us with mystery—the hardship which forces us to struggle—the anxiety that ends in trust—are the true nourishments of our natural being.

"DAT'S JEST WHAT I'D LIKE TO KNOW."—The Columbus (Ohio) Journal reports a row in that city:

"A large African, whose back might answer for a black-board in a public school, was arrested, and a boulder, weighing about two pounds, was found under his shirt bosom. On being questioned as to how it came into his possession, he exclaimed with a look of blank astonishment: 'Dat's jest what I'd like to know, how dat infernal rock got into my bosom. I 'spect some niggar must have throwed it dar.'"

The Secession Movement.

Since our last issue a number of important moves have been made on the Secession chessboard, both at Charleston and Washington, a few of which we briefly recount as follows:—

On the 27th ult., despatches were received from Charleston, stating that Maj. Anderson had abandoned Fort Moultrie, having first spiked the guns, and removed with the government troops to Fort Sumter, which commands the harbor of Charleston. The movement, which was without authority from the President or Secretary of War, created intense excitement in Charleston, several military companies were ordered out and a collision was expected, but did not occur. On the 28th, the military of Charleston took possession of Fort Moultrie and Castle Pinckney, but they are of little value to them under present circumstances. On the same day the Palmetto flag was raised over the Custom House and Post Office in Charleston, and the Convention authorized the Governor to receive embassadors, consuls and agents from foreign powers. Now, if South Carolina don't get out of the Union, these proceedings will be a dark blot on the pages of her State history.

While the above was being transacted at Charleston, the three Commissioners appointed to wait upon the President, and make arrangements about the U. S. property which lies within the State of South Carolina, were in Washington, seeking to have a conference with the President. One despatch states that the President refused to receive them except as citizens of the United States. The movement of Maj Anderson was discussed and much condemned by the secessionists and the Secretary of War, and Mr. Floyd, who is a secessionist, demanded of the President that for this act he should be recalled. The Union members of the Cabinet, Gen. Scott, and all the Northern members of both House of Congress opposed his being recalled, whereupon Mr. Floyd tendered his resignation as Secretary of War, which was accepted.

The Telegraph dispatches of Monday last, state that the vacant Secretaryship was tendered to Gen. Scott, who declined, whereupon Post-Master General, Mr. Holt, a Union man and a patriot, was appointed. The appointment meets the approval of Gen. Scott. These changes are said to have created a healthy state of feeling in Washington among the lovers of the Union, while the disunionists feel awful and are cursing the President and Gen. Scott most lustily. It is said that the cutter, Harriet Lane, has sailed with sealed orders, the destination being, probably, Charleston. The South Carolinians are said to be erecting strong fortifications in and around the harbor of Charleston to prevent re-inforcements being sent to Maj. Anderson.

Despatches were received at Washington, on the 27th ult., from Macon, Ga., stating that rumors of a rising among the slaves in the South-western part of the State prevailed there, but the rumor was likely without foundation, as we have heard nothing of it since that time. From the consternation which the rumor produced, it is evident that the Southerners fear a movement of this kind much more than they do an attack on them by the people of the North.

The latest despatch from Washington says:

On the 1st inst., Mr. Holt called every officer of the army and navy to the War Department for general consultation in reference to the Charleston Forts. They had a protracted session, the result of which is not known further than that every officer present approved of the conduct of Maj. Anderson. The President's special message on the present difficulties in South Carolina would be sent in to-day (Wednesday.) There was great excitement in the square on which stands the house occupied by the Commissioners from Charleston and a portion of the police force was detached to patrol the square.—Nothing serious occurred. The secretary of the Commissioners left for Charleston with detailed despatches for the Convention.

All hope of the reception of the Commissioners, in their official capacity, is abandoned. The revenue cutter, Harriet Lane, has been ordered to sea, and it is supposed her destination is Fort Sumpter. The Commissioners say no United States steamer shall be allowed to pass Charleston unless she carries a white flag.

This is the condition of affairs at this time. What it may be this time next week, that time alone will tell. We forbear all comments until we know what course the Administration will pursue.

☞ Quite an excitement was created in Pittsburgh, last week, in consequence of an order issued by the Secretary of War for the shipment of some 124 cannons to Forts in Texas and Louisiana, which, it is alleged, are not yet finished or in a condition to receive them. The fact that Mr. Floyd, then the acting Secretary, is a secessionist, induced the belief that the guns were intended for the disunionists and not for the defence or strengthening of United States fortifications. Inquiry was immediately made by the citizens of Pittsburgh in regard to what disposition was to be made of the guns, and the reply being satisfactory the shipment is now going on without interference. The process of loading the guns is necessarily very slow, only about two a day being placed on the boats.

Meeting of the Harrisburg and Lancaster Railroad Company.—A meeting of the stockholders of this Company was held in Philadelphia on the 27th ult., to take action on the acceptance or rejection of the contract for a more permanent lease of their Road to the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company. There was a large attendance of share holders. By instruction of the Chairman the roll was called, in order to ascertain if a majority of the stock was represented. This operation entailed a great expenditure of time. It was finally ascertained that there were 15,490 shares represented out of 21,742, the whole number of shares. This being more than a quorum of the stock, the meeting proceeded to business. Mr. Baker, the President of the Company, read the contract made with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the renewal of the lease of the Harrisburg and Lancaster Railroad to the Pennsylvania Railroad. The substance of the contract is that the organization of the Harrisburg Company shall be maintained, and the lease be made for nine hundred and ninety-nine years; the Pennsylvania Railroad Company maintaining the road and paying the interest on the funded debt, and seven per cent. per annum on the stock. As the cost of the Harrisburg Railroad is some $95,000 greater than the amount represented by the existing number of shares, the Harrisburg Railroad Company is to be allowed to issue nineteen hundred shares of new stock, thus making the number of shares equal the cost of the work, and on this increased capital the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will pay seven per cent., which is equal to about seven and six-tenths per cent. per annum, on the present number of shares. The new stock to be issued is a fraction less than one to eleven. The profits since the last dividend in October are to be divided among stockholders; and the dividend periods, hereafter, are to be in January and July, instead of April and October. Attached to the contract was a resolution authorizing the Board of Directors to consumate the contract and the lease to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. A motion was made that the resolution be adopted. After a protracted and animated discussion, the vote was taken viva voce, on the ratification of the contract, and it was almost unanimously adopted. Several gentlemen objected to taking the vote in this way, and Mr. Thomas S. Smith called for a stock vote. The Secretary stated his belief that under the charter of the company a stock vote was not necessary where there was a clear majority of stock represented at the meeting. The chairman announced that the question was decided in the affirmative. There being much objection to a viva voce vote in settlement of the question, a stock vote was called and ordered. The majority in favor of ratifying the contract was about ten thousand shares. The Pennsylvania Central Company will now take control of the Harrisburg and Lancaster road, causing an entire change of programme, and the dismissal of the Conductors and other employees of the last named company.

Ten Years of Railroading in the United States.—The world has probably never witnessed, in any department of industrial and mechanical developement, such an extraordinary phenomenon as that of railroad construction in the United States, during the last ten years. Railroading had commenced long before, but the larger portion of the immense number and magnitude of railroads in this country, has been made between 1850 and 1860, and almost altogether between 1850 and 1857. To show this clearly and strikingly, we will present the number and length of railroads, in each State, in each of the years 1850 and 1860, as near as we can ascertain them. The following table presents that view, viz:

Death of Hon. Henry M. Fuller.—The telegraph, on Wednesday last, conveyed throughout the country the intelligence of the death of this man, lately so prominent before the people of this State. Mr. Fuller was once a member of the State Legislature, was elected to Congress in 1850 as a Whig, and again in 1854 as a member of the American party. He was the American candidate for Speaker in the contest which resulted in the election of Mr. Banks. He was at one time the Whig candidate for canal Commissioner. In the late contest he was one of the leaders of the Constitutional Union Party and and was their candidate for Congress in the second district.

☞ From the returns made to the United States Adjutant General's office in 1850 it appears that the number of militia men in fourteen free States was 1,226,573. Of this number the four States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Massachusetts had 758,971 officers and men, while the fifteen Southern States had only 778,634. The late census returns will materially increase the disproportion in favor of the free States.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

Harrisburg, January 1st, 1860.

Messrs. Editors:—I came here a day or two ago to see the process of organizing a House of Representatives.

Many amusing and exciting scenes occur, particularly during the preliminary arrangements. Such a pulling, caucusing and boring, &c. Well the great agony is now over, the caucuses in both houses were held yesterday afternoon and last night, which of course ended the great strife, and caused some black looks and some loud and rather hard words, among those outside the ring.

I think there were not quite the usual number of outsiders that have been here the two or three last years, but still the crowd was respectably large, and all applicants pressing their claims for the different offices with their very best ability.

The House was called to order by the old clerk, at 12 o'clock to-day, and went through the regular routine of Organization, electing Elisha W. Davis, of Venango county, Speaker, E. H. Rauch, of Lehigh county, Clerk, and E. W. Caperon, of Chester, Assistant Clerk.

The Senate was called to order by the former Speaker, R. M. Palmer, at 3 o'clock. The Election returns of the districts from which the new members were elected, were opened and read. The Senate then proceeded to the election of Speaker, which resulted in the selection of R. M. Palmer of Schuylkill. The Speaker and new members were sworn in, the Senate then proceeded to the election of Clerk, Ass't Clerks, &c., as follows:—Clerk, Russell Erret, Ass't Clerk, C. P. Ramsdell; Transcribing Clerks, Geo. W. Patton, G. S. Berry and J. Hitchcock, also, all the other officers, and after the organization was completed, and the usual committees appointed to wait upon the Representatives, Governor, &c., and inform them of their organization, and also resolutions in regard to hour of meeting and adjournment, a series of resolutions were offered by Senator Smith of Philadelphia, relative to the existing crisis now so greatly agitating the minds of the People of this Union, and pledging Pennsylvania now, as she ever has been, true to the Constitution and the Union.

The Resolutions were, on motion, referred to a special committee upon which the Speaker appointed Messrs. Smith, Hall, Ketcham, Schindel and Climer, without any discussion.

The members of the third House are arriving rapidly, and a meeting, I believe, has been called to effect an organization. I see the former Speaker is on hand, but it is said he declines a re-election. I expect they will have quite an interesting time in their deliberations this winter.

The U. S. Senator question is begining to assume an interesting attitude. It is hard to tell who has the inside track but I think it is either Wilmot or Cowen.

I think there is no doubt of the election of Hon. H. D. Moore State Treasurer.

Yours Truly,
Occasional, Jr.

Patent Medicine Advertisements.—Friend Lewis, of the Huntingdon Globe, is opposed to the publication of patent medicines in country newspapers, especially when the proprietors do not pay the same rates as local advertisers.—Jolly, of the Star, refers to the matter, and suggests a convention of the newspaper publishers of Blair, Huntingdon, Clearfield, Cambria and Centre counties, for the purpose of fixing upon a schedule of rates for advertising. We can not exactly see the necessity of such a convention. All that is necessary to secure the desired end is for each publisher to stick to his published prices. This is not done now, nor are we sure it would be done if the price was fixed by a convention. Besides, all the publishers in the district named might not attend such a meeting, and those who did not would not feel bound by the action of the others, and matters would be in no better shape than at present. So far as we are concerned, we have a schedule of prices and we live up to them.—We charge local advertisers no more nor no less than patent medicine dealers. All patent medicine advertisments now in our paper pay full advertising rates. We have lately refused to publish several advertisements of patent medicines, and that, too, after the agent had shown us contracts made with other papers, which have a larger circulation than ours, in which they were published at a little over one half the price asked by us. Discrimination in favor of patent medicines and against local advertisers is wrong and the publisher who is guilty of such discrimination does not deserve the patronage of home advertisers. Let each one answer for himself.

House Burnt.—On Sunday afternoon last, the house of Mr. Philip Harpster in Frankstown township, was burned to the ground, together with all its contents, embracing beds, bedding, clothing, provisions, &c., &c. The family were all at Church at the time of the occurrence, and it is supposed the fire originated from a spark falling on the roof. Mr Harpster is a poor man and the loss is a severe one, especially at this inclement season of the year. The building was owned by Mr. Isaac Slippey. Among the articles destroyed was a double-barrel revolving rifle worth some $40, a uniform of the Allegheny Cavalry, and another of the Juniata Rifles. Mr. Harpster's neighbors, with characteristic generosity, done much to relieve his pressing necessities, but whithal, as we said before, his loss is a severe one.—Register.

Christmas.—Christmas, we were always taught to believe was a merry day, but we must confess that it bore a closer resemblance to Sunday than any holiday or thanksgiving we have ever passed over. All the stores, with the exception of the candy and notion shops and clothing stores, were closed and our streets almost deserted. Everybody and "the rest of mankind" had gone to hunt Christmas some place else. We spent our time in casting up our accounts with our patrons, consequently those who owe us may expect to see their accounts ere long, and those whom we owe will see us as soon as we obtain the wherewith to settle up.

Thanks.—Otto Rossi, who keeps a fine confectionary fruit and cake store up street, will accept our thanks for a fine cake, with which to fix up our Christmas dinner. As we happened to be turkeyless on that occasion it did not grace our festal board on that day, but was duly served up a few days later, when it was found superb. For a good cake, call on Rossi and you will get it.

Jurors.—The following is the list of Grand and Traverse Jurors drawn for the January Term of Court, which commences on the fourth Monday and 28th day of January, 1861:—

Capture of a Fox by a Locomotive.—One day last week, in the neighborhood of Mill Creek, Huntingdon county, the engineer of the No. 73, hauling one of the stock trains, discovered a fox coming down the embankment upon the track. The engineer, being as cunning as Reynard is said to be, "shut off," and watched his opportunity until the fox should attempt to cross the track in front of the engine, when he would put on steam and capture him. In this design he was so far successful as to cripple the animal. The fireman jumped off with a view of getting the game alive, but Mr. Reynard showed fight, and had to be killed before he would allow himself to be captured. The skin of the animal, we understand, is to be stuffed, and to adorn No. 73.

☞ The Local U. S. Senate will meet in Lowther's Hall, on Friday evening next, the committee appointed for the purpose having secured that room, which is now being fitted up for the use of the Senate. The proceedings of last meeting of Senate are unavoidably crowded out this week, together with other local and news items which should have appeared.

☞ Reported—that beef is selling at 3 cents, pork at 4 cents, and butter at 12½ cents per pound, in Blairsville. In Altoona, beef is 5@6 cents, pork 7 cents, and butter 20 @ 22 cents. A slight difference in so short a distance.—Couldn't some of these articles be imported to this place for less than from 3 to 8@10 cents per pound?

Masonic Festival.—Thursday last was the anniversary of the patron saint of Free Masonry, St. John's Day. The event was celebrated in a proper manner by the brethren of the "mystic tie," on the evening of that day, by partaking of a substantial supper, served up by Mrs. Levan, at her house, in East Altoona.

Capture of Liberals.—Miramon has surprised the Liberals at Toctria, and captured 1,200 men, and twelve cannon. Generals Degallado, Bernesebait, Trenco and others were made prisoners.

Religious.—There will be preaching in the Presbyterian Church, in this place, on Friday next—National Fast Day. The public are invited to worship there.

CARRIER'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

TO THE PATRONS OF THE

"Altoona Tribune."

Tuesday, January 1st, 1861.

Kind patrons, last night in my attitions
I watched, while without I heard the lo'mourn
Of the winds, which, around me far and near,
Sang the last dirge of the fast dying year.
I'd an engagement when midnight came 'round,
Up there, by "Old Father Time to be found:
For he told me when last we'd met before,
That he'd meet me there as in days of yore;
And as ever would have, the Carrier boy
Go forth in the morn, with his smile of joy,
Wishing the friends of the Tribune good cheer,
A very bright morning and happy "New Year."
While waiting alone in my attic there,
Thrown backward to rest, in my easy chair,
I thought of the year thus passing away,
Which oblivion would claim ere the dawn of day:
For I knew that no sooner would "Sixty" be gone,
Than with glad shouts would be hailed Sixty one.
Thus with my head full of past and future,
And my gas turned down to a taper light,
In my attic there in my easy chair
I dreamingly mused on Time's rapid flight,
I thought of the morn of last New Year's day.
When the sun broke forth in its beauty bright,
And bathed in its lustre the brows of some
Whose hearts were then happy, buoyant and light,—
Hearts that grew sad ere the year passed away;
For sorrow has cast o'er some homes a cloud,
And where there was mirth, and gladness and song, [shroud.
Has since been the death-dirge, coffin and
And I thought of the rambles, last summer,
In search of flow'rs in the dark shady grove,
And of songs and sighs 'neath the greenwood tree—
Worships there offered t' the Goddess of love.
I thought of the opening bud of life,
The cradle that lay, to the grave, so near;
Of manhood's prime and of hoary old age,
All lost 'mid the wreck of the dying year.
Thus on ev'ry string of the soul
Had mind been busily playing,
And thought had been rambling around,
O'er grave-yards and pleasure ground straying.
When, Time's locomotive drew up to the station,
And whistled down "brakes" with a sound shrill and clear, [parted,
And I heard the wail of the twelve months de-
As they glanced from their graves at the coming New Year.
When thus aroused from my slumber,
A tap on my lattice I heard,
Who's there? And in stalk'd Father Time,
Not deigning to utter a word.
For a while he stood there and gaz'd
As if some other person to see,
And I wonder'd much if I dream'd,
He had promis'd to call on me.
At length he spoke in mournful tone,
Which fell like a weight on my ear,
And I could plainly trace o'er his cheek,
The course of a briny tear.
"I have come," said he, "from the tomb of years,
Where I've buried my children all,
But no sooner's the last in oblivion laid
Than another comes forth at my call.
And now I have come to you, my friend,
Though young in years you may be,
To audit the business of sixty
And close up accounts for me.
Some accounts are eternal my friend,
With those you have nothing to do,
'Tis the personal matters alone
That I shall entrust to you."
So saying he placed in my hand
A volume written all o'er,
And then quickly turning around
Pass'd out at my chamber door.
I opened the book 'twas so old,
Its lids were musty with age,
And th't the account left me to audit,
I found near the six thousandth page,
Each page in the musty volume,
Though blotted over with tears
Plainly presented the record,
Of one of many past years.
Yet few of those much worn six thousand pages,
The records of Time for many past ages,
Bear on their faces, scenes of moment so great.
To society s circle, or circle of State,
As the last one there written over by Time,
The one about which I am writing this rhyme;
And from this same page I the liberty take
A selection of items in brief to make.
The buds as before, have swell'd in the bowers,
The gardens and woodlands grown bright with flowers,
The groves have been green—the sky above blue,
The fields have been cloth'd in their golden hue;
And the harvest gather'd and stor'd away,
And the verdure has faded day by day,
The forest's put on its crimson and gold,
And the garb of the year's grown ragged and old.
But events less common than these have transpired,
The heart of all It'ly with freedom's been fir'd,
Has beaten responsive to liberty's call,
And tyranny toppling is ready to fall.
And now, high enroll'd on the records of fame
May be seen shining forth, Garabaldi's name,
And Italy free, in her powers again
May flourish—and Victor Emanuel reign.
And far away in the sunny southren land,
Where the oranges grow, and the brow is fann'd
By the breezes that blow from either sea,
Has fallen the grey-ey'd man of destiny.
For fame to ambition his being he gave,
And Walker now sleeps in a criminal's grave.
And Japan her programme of action to change
Sent far o'er the water her embassy strange,
Which scene did Americans so mightily please,
That everything new was named "Japanese."
And no sooner had they from the New World gone,
Than Victoria sent over her favorite son,
Who, on Uncle Sam's farm, as Baron Renfrew,
Wherever he went, crowds of curious drew.
He paused for a moment down by the "big house,"
And ho! there was I just as shy as a mouse,
And I do believe—don't think me uncivil—
He don't look as sharp as our youngest devil.
For many long months the coming election,
Caused great excitement in ev'ry direction;
But that it might be no longer uncertain
October raised from the Centre a Curtin.
And November its tale of victory to tell,
Cast a cloud o'er Breckinridge, Douglas and Bell,
Sent them back again to the political school,
And decided Old Abe at the White House should rule.
Secessionists then, with hearts full of treason,
For their purpose chose this excitable season.
Slavery declaring that the South its place is,
And that Union the land no longer embraces,
Has summon'd together its convocations,
To sever th' one into many weak nations.
Yet hope—though faint 'tis true—still burns in our breast,
That soon this rough sea will be calmly at rest.
But then if concession of every kind fails,
Let us call on Abr'am for a few of those rails,
And fence in the South—till she learns th' relation
That exists between her and this mighty nation.
From Kansas is heard a new story of blood,
And a cry of famine—a cry for food—
Both war and starvation, they now have to fear,
With sadness they welcome the incoming year.
Of accidents, many and serious we find,
Which stir up the heart, and harrow the mind.
But nowhere did fate so horribly frown,
As when on the lake, the Elgin went down.
But why now recount the items all o'er,
The Tribune's been left each week at your door,
Which contain'd all this news and many things more. [done,
We've told all we've heard that was anywhere
While the world was making its trip 'round the Sun:
Whether of sadness, interest, mirth, or of fun.
And now kind friends I have finished my song,
Or speech, or address, or whatever you wish to call it, and if for the same you have a spare quarter, or half, just pass it along to the

☞ At a regular meeting of Tyrone Div., No 325, Sons of Temperance, a committee was appointed to draft the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, That in the death of Brother John W. Cramer, we sustain the loss of a faithful and energetic member of this Division, and a warm friend of the temperance "reform;" also, one as a citizen, respected and beloved by all who knew him, therefore,

Resolved, That as a token of our esteem for the deceased brother, the members of this division wear crape for thirty days.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be inserted in all the papers in Blair county, and a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

☞ At a meeting of the Tyrone Cavalry, held at their Armory, in the borough of Tyrone, on the 15th of December, inst., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased an inscrutable Providence to remove from our midst our late companion-in-arms, John W. Cramer, therefore,

Resolved, That out of respect to his memory, our armory be dressed in mourning for the term of thirty days, and that at the two parades next ensuing, of the Cavalry, our colors be craped, and the members of the company wear the usual badge of mourning.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Tyrone Star and Altoona Tribune, and a copy of them be sent to the afflicted widow and family of the deceased.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Blood Food! Blood Food!!

Are you despairing? Have you tried other remedies and failed? Do you classify Dr. Bronson's Blood Food with other patent medicines? Listen!

It would be impossible to let you know of the Blood Food without resorting to the advertising. Now, that quacks resort to the same method to acquaint you with their patent medicines, does not make this preparation the same style of article at all as theirs. Dr. Bronson is a teacher in our medical colleges, and a very celebrated lecturer on physiology; and his preparations—not patent medicines—are the result of an old physician's great experience and knowledge. Then do not despair. Though you have tried other remedies and failed, try this and you will surely be cured. Consumptive! you may be cured by this. Unfortunate! whose over-taxed system has brought on some chronic disease, numbers suffering as you are, find relief and restoration to perfect health from the Blood Food. Dyspeptic! try it. All suffering from Liver Complaint, male or female weaknesses, or any complaint caused by poverty or deficiency of blood, feed your blood with the Blood Food and be well.

Mothers! Mothers!! If you value your own comfort and the health of your children, keep Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial always in the house. It is safe, free from paregoric and all opiates, and is a certain remedy for Diarrhea, Summor complaint, and all diseases attending teething, and a great assistance in softening the gums. ☞ See advertisement. Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.

Another Great Cure effected by Berrhave's Holland Bitters.

The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS.

☞ The use of Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, Flatulence, heaviness of the stomach, or any other like affection, is second to none in America or abroad. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy so indispensable for the restoration of health. The numerous acknowledgements of its superior excellence and beneficial results have assured the proprietors that it cannot but prove a great cure to the afflicted, and impart stability to the thorough system.

MEDICAL AND CHEMICAL REFORM.

ADVICE FREE.

New-York Benevolent Infirmary,

ESTABLISHED 1856,

And devoted to The Cause of Medical Reform; to the Diffusion of Medical Knowledge for the Prevention of Disease, and to the relief of those suffering and afflicted with Chronic and Virulent Disorders. To this end this Infirmary is endowed, to enable the sick and suffering throughout the length and breadth of our land, to avoid the Poisonous Drugs, Extortion, and Ignorance of professed Physicians, through which thousands and tens of thousands annually perish.

The following are some of the diseases we cure, not only at the Infirmary but in all parts of our country:

Consumption and Pulmonary Complaints, Fevers, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Eye and Ear Disease, Cancers and other Tumors, Jaundice and Liver Complaint, Seminal Weakness, and all diseases of the Urinary and Sexual Organs, from whatever cause or whatever nature. Our object will be to give joy to the afflicted by effecting in all cases a speedy cure.

Our rule is to charge nothing for advice and written prescriptions; but will furnish when requested the very best medicines at the lowest rates.

These remedies are prepared in our own Laboratory, under the care of able Chemists, and are the most reliable known to science, including all the recent discoveries.

To all addressing us by letter, containing full account of symptoms and appearances of disease, age, occupation, &c., we will write a candid reply, with advice and directions how to send us when sending for advice will be devoted to furnishing medicine for the sick. In all cases medicine can be sent by mail or express if desired. Send for one or more of our works and judge for yourselves.

Also published at the Infirmary, to aid these objects,

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of diseases of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idopathic Headache is also very common, being unusually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Misus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no. a bottle of Prepared Pills.—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it either.

Constipation of Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming sympton. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars retained from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Suffering by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox. the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purpose you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with pafect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will state my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature of the certificate.—The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Read the following from the New York Courier:

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1826 to 1858; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy. Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their order dire

HAIR OILS, COLOGNES, POMades, Shaving Cream, Toilet Soaps, &c. for sale by [1-27] G. W. KESSLER.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being, per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

ONLY 25 CENTS

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

RAIL ROAD LANDS FOR SALE,
ON LONG CREDIT,
AND AT LOW RATES OF INTEREST

THE HANIBAL AND ST. JOSEPH RAILROAD COMPANY, having over 500,000 ACRES of LAND lying in the State of Missouri, which was granted, by Act of Congress, to aid in the construction of their Road, offer the principal portion thereof, for sale, on the most liberal terms.

The greater part of these lands are within six, and all within fifteen miles of the Railroad, which is now completed, and open for use throughout its entire length (206 miles,) and runs through a country which is unsurpassed by any in the salubrity of its climate, the fertility of its soil, and the extent of its mineral resources.

GROCERY, PROVISION,
AND
WHOLESALE LIQUOR STORE.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD INform the public that he has purchased the interest of A. MILLIRON in the Grocery and Provision Store heretofore kept by them on Virginia street, below Caroline St., where he will continue the business, and will keep constantly on hand a large supply of

FLOUR, HAMS, SHOULDERS, SIDES,
DRIED BEEF, FISH, SALT, MOLASSES, COFFEE, TEA,
SUGAR, SPICES, CONFECTIONARIES,

and everything usually kept in Grocery and Provision Stores, all of which he receives fresh from the eastern and western cities, and will sell at the most reasonable prices.

Having recently obtained license to sell liquor by wholesale, I will keep constantly on hand a large assortment of liquors of the best qualities to be had.

I respectfully solicit a share of public custom.

July 12, 1860.-6m. J. BERKOWITZ.

TO THE PUBLIC.—THE SUBSCRIBER (having taken the establishment heretofore owned by Samuel I. Fries,) would respectfully announce to the citizens of Altoona and vicinity, that he has removed his

RED LION HOTEL,
ALTOONA, BLAIR COUNTY, PA.

This old established and popular HOTEL, located nearly opposite the place of stopping the passenger cars in Altoona, has passed into the hands of the present proprietor.—Long experience in the business warrants me in assuring the travelling public that no pains will be spared to render guests as comfortable as possible while sojourning under my roof.

The TABLE will constantly be supplied with the very best the market affords.

The BAR will be found to contain an excellent assortment of LIQUORS of all kinds, including that choice beverage LAGER BEER.

The STABLE is in charge of an excellent and experienced Ostler.

The proprietor hopes, by his long experience in the busines and the facilities at his command, to make the Red Lion, in all respects, a first class Hotel. The business of the Hotel will be under my own personal supervision. A liberal share of public patronage is kindly solicited.

JOHN W. SCHWEIGERT, Proprietor.

MEDICATED FUR CHEST PROTECTOR, A SAFE SHIELD AGAINST THOSE fearful diseases Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and other affections of the Lungs, which arise from the exposed state of the chest, according to fashion and the continual changes of our Climate, for sale at the Drug Store of G. W. KESSLER.

MOFFAT'S
LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINE HAVES NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the manifestats of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description:—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

An aperient and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Nismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible.

Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by Female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise, for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Afflictions of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old vehicles, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting nor overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly afflicting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating the pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER,

HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the suds.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.
